

Ravens Nest Embroidery

For the best results with these designs, you should place 2 heavy weight pieces of stabilizers, slightly bigger than the design, placed under the hoop and above the needle plate, called a “floater.” This is especially important with these designs because they are filled with an outline. Also, make sure your fabric is hooped “drum” tight to avoid any slipping or the outline may be shifted.